- 2.03 The Company will not permit any person not covered under this Agreement to do any tasks/duties covered under this Agreement. Where the requirements of the service (as defined in Article 1.04.11) dictate

2.03.01 The Company will issue the following memo to all appropriate Supervisors within seven (7) days of the ratification of this Agreement and to any Supervisor subsequently hired within seven (7) days of their date of hire:

TO: ALL SUPERVISORS FROM:
SUBJECT: ARTICLE 2.03 DATE:

2.03 The Company will not permit any person not covered under this Agreement to do any task/duties covered under this Agreement. Where the requirements of the service (as defined in Article 1.04.11) dictate supervisory personnel may perform the duties. This however, will not result in a staff reduction or a reduction in normal hours of work. If it is found that Supervisors are having to involve themselves in the operation on a frequent basis, it will be appropriate to review the staffing to ensure that there are the proper number of staff needed to do the job.

Noted above is the language contained in Article 2.03 of the current collective agreement.

The intent of this language is to provide us with an opportunity to ensure that situations which cannot be preplanned for and which require immediate action, such as irregular operations, will not diminish our ability to provide an acceptable level of service to our customers. However, it must be stressed that it is to be used occasionally. Your effectiveness as a Supervisor is diminished if your physical involvement is required on more than an occasional basis.

For this reason, if it is found that Supervisors are having to involve themselves in the operation on a more frequent basis that is intended, it will be appropriate that we review the staffing to ensure that we have the proper number of staff needed to do the job.

2.04 The Company reserves the right to contract out any work covered by this Agreement in circumstances where it does not have the staff, facilities or tooling to do a particular job. The Company will fully discuss such situations with the Union prior to making the final decision to contract out.

2.04.01 In addition to the foregoing, the Company reserves the right to contract out any work covered by this Agreement in any category except Aircraft

Services, in order to obtain a new ground-handling contract, or the renewal of an existing ground-handling contract, where it is not economically feasible for employees to perform the work involved. In such cases, and prior to the final decision, the Company will consult with the Union in order to determine the feasibility of having the work performed by employees and/or to reduce the impact upon any employees affected by the decision.

ARTICLE 3 - MANAGEMENT'S RIGHTS

3.01 The Management of the Company and the direction of its employees are vested exclusively in the Company and shall not in any way be abridged except as specifically restricted in this Agreement.

- A. To maintain order, discipline and efficiency, to establish and enforce reasonable Company rules, and to discipline, suspend and discharge employees for just cause.
 - B. To hire new employees, retire, classify, direct, promote, demote, transfer, assign shifts and increase and decrease the work force from time to time.

 - D. To make and alter from time to time reasonable rules and regulations to be observed by its employees which shall not be discriminating in nature.

3.01.02 These enumerations shall not be deemed to exclude other prerogatives not herein enumerated, and any of the rights, powers or authority the Company had prior to the signing of this Agreement are hereby retained by the Company.

3.02 Such rights will be exercised in a manner that is not inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement.

Additionally, there will not be any total embargoes on vacation times provided the number of employees in the base exceeds fifty (50).
- 14.01.06 Vacation times available to employees will not be affected by the vacations of other Company personnel.

14.01.07.01 Company initiated changes to vacation schedules will be implemented in inverse order of seniority within the affected classification.

14.01.07.02 Where the Company changes an employee's vacation schedule, the employee will be entitled to select their vacation dates at any other time and such selection will not affect the vacation choice of any other employee. Where the employee changes their vacation schedule, they will be entitled to select their vacation dates at any other time which is not desired by another employee and where there is a vacancy in the schedule.

14.03.02 No later than October 1 of each year, the Company will post a bulletin listing employees in order of seniority and showing each employee's total vacation entitlement. In addition and in the event employees who expect to be absent during the selection period have advised the Company of their selection in accordance with Article 14.03.03.01, their selection and names will be noted on the bulletin.

14.03.03 Employees will select vacation dates by noting their selection on the posted bulletin no later than October 31. If possible, such selection is to be noted by each employee in order of their seniority with the most senior employee noting their vacation selection first and the most junior last.

14.03.03.01 Employees who expect to be absent during the selection period may advise the Company, in advance and in writing, as to their selection of vacation dates.

14.03.04 An employee who fails to select their vacation dates no later than October 31 will be allowed a choice of available dates after all other employee(s) vacations in the location are allocated. Such employee will select vacation dates from these available dates no later than November 3 and in the event s/he fails to select, s/he will be allocated vacation dates by the Company from those that are available.

14.03.05 No later than November 15, the Company will post a bulletin showing the allocation of vacation dates for each employee.

14.05.02 At the option of the employee, vacation accrued but not taken by employees who are laid off will be paid at the time of lay off or at the end of the calendar year it was due to be taken.

14.05.03 Vacation pay will be the employee's regular rate of pay during the vacation period or will be equal to two percent (2%) of gross earnings during the period the vacation was earned for each seven (7) days of entitlement, whichever is the greater pay.

14.05.04 In the event the vacation entitlement is prorated, each multiple of seven (7) calendar days will be paid in accordance with Article 14.05.03 and fractions of seven (7) calendar days will be prorated at the rate of one-seventh (1/7) of two percent (2%) for each day or paid at the employee's regular rate of pay, whichever is the greater pay.

14.05.05 Any additional pay resulting from the comparison required by Articles 14.05.03 and 14.05.04 will be paid by the Company on the first pay cheque after March 15 in the calendar year following the year during which the vacation was taken. Alternatively, and if requested by the employee in writing twenty-one (21) calendar days prior to the commencement of their vacation on the form provided by the Company, the additional pay will be paid on a separate pay cheque for the pay period during which the vacation was taken.

14.06 Extended Vacation

14.06.01 Employees will have the ability to take one (1) or a maximum of two (2) weeks extended vacation each year by utilizing the appropriate number of hours from their overtime bank for this purpose. For this purpose, a week shall mean forty (40) hours in the case of a full time employee or sixteen (16) hours in the case of a part time employee. Part time employees will have the option to allocate additional hours equal to the hours bid on their shift to ensure their pay remains whole during their extended vacation period.

Note: One (1) of the two (2) weeks stated above will be guaranteed and bid as per Article 14.06.04.

14.06.02 Employees taking extended vacation must notify the Employer of their election by the first Monday after Labour Day prior to the year in which the extended vacation is to be taken.

14.06.03 Employees selecting this option must have the necessary hours in the overtime bank at the time the selection is made. Part time employees will be required to have sixteen (16) hours for each week or the equivalent hours bid on their shift to ensure their pay remains whole during their extended vacation period. These hours will be frozen at the time the election is made and set aside for this purpose.

14.06.04 Extended vacation will be bid in accordance with Article 14.03.03, but as a second round.

Failing answer or satisfactory adjustment within the above time limit, the grievance may be submitted by the Union to Step 2 of this grievance procedure.
- 15.05 Step 2 - An appeal from Step 1 will be lodged, in writing, to the General Manager within seven (7) days of receipt of the Company's decision at Step 1. Such Union-Management meetings however, will not be considered as being in lieu of the grievance procedure.
- 18.02 Letters of Understanding - Any Letter of Understanding negotiated between the President of the Company or his/her designate and the National Union will be deemed to form part of this Agreement as if it had been incorporated herein. Each Letter of Understanding will be identified by a heading and a number and must be signed by representatives of both parties.
- 18.03 Time-Off - Union Representatives - The Company recognizes the importance of prompt handling of Union business, such as the handling of grievances throughout the process, negotiating of amendments to agreements, and attendance at Union meetings at various levels; the Company further recognizes the importance of the role of Union representatives in carrying out the functions of Union business. It is therefore agreed that Union representatives will be granted reasonable time off to carry out such functions. This time will be allowed as promptly as possible consistent with service pressures. In order to facilitate this process it will be the obligation of the Union representative(s) to afford as much notice as possible of such needs, and to obtain permission for the time required from their immediate supervisor/manager and the supervisor of the employee(s) involved. Additionally, the Union representative will notify their supervisor when returning to duty.

- offensive, humiliating, abusive, threatening, repetitive or which has adverse effects on an individual's employment.

Complaints and/or grievances involving allegations of sexual or racial harassment will be handled with all possible confidentiality.

No reprisal shall be made against an employee because they filed a complaint of harassment except where a false charge has been made with malicious intent.

19.09.02 Resolution
Stage 1 - Informal Conflict Resolution

The informal conflict resolution process will not be utilized to investigate and resolve Human Rights Harassment.

Any employee who believes they have a potential complaint of harassment should make their objection known to the alleged harasser and is encouraged to resolve the matter wherever possible on an informal basis. The employee may choose to ask for the help of their local manager or Union Representative to facilitate a meeting between the parties. In an environment of confidentiality, the manager and/or Union representative will outline the complaint procedure, the definition of harassment, and discuss various possible courses of action with the parties in order to resolve the matter quickly and appropriately. At any point the complainant, management or Unifor may decide to discontinue the informal process and escalate the matter to Stage 2.

While the informal conflict resolution process will not assign formal responsibility for the conflict, management may need to address inappropriate behaviour on the part of individuals involved in the dispute, and warn that future incidents of inappropriate conduct may result in discipline and the more formal investigation process of Stage 2. Stage 1 resolutions should be completed within two weeks from the date of the initial complaint.

Stage 2 – Formal Investigation

If the matter remains unresolved, is a serious issue of personal harassment, or is an incident of Human Rights harassment, the complainant will make a complaint in writing in the form of an assigned letter to the President of the Local Union which will be forwarded to the Company's Harassment Policy Coordinator. The signed letter will contain sufficient detail to determine if the matter will proceed to a formal investigation. Unifor and the Company will each select an individual who will act as an investigator and will communicate the names of their designate to each other.

The Union and Company designates will then contact each other and arrange to conduct a joint investigation. At the beginning of the investigation the complainant's identity and the general nature of the complaint will be communicated to the alleged harasser (respondent). When the complainant and respondent are members of different bargaining units, the senior executive of the respondent's bargaining unit will be informed by the Company Harassment Coordinator and will have the right to appoint an investigator to hear all evidence in the formal investigation.

If the matter remains unresolved at the completion of the investigation, a joint report will be prepared by the investigators. Where the preparation of a joint report is not possible, the investigators may submit separate reports in which case each will receive a copy of the other's report. A recommendation to resolve the complaint will be made by the Company investigator. The Union investigator may choose whether or not to submit a recommendation. The report will be submitted within fourteen (14) calendar days of the filing of the complaint. An extension of the time limit for submitting the report may be agreed between the Assistant Vice President, Labour Relations and the President of the Local.

Within ten (10) calendar days of receiving the investigation reports the Assistant Vice President, Labour Relations shall issue such orders as may be necessary to resolve the complaint. Summarizing the findings of the investigation (harassment has been or has not been substantiated) these orders will be communicated in writing to the complainant, the respondent and the President of the Local Union. At any time during the formal investigation process the Assistant Vice President, Labour Relations may take measures to separate employees, if deemed necessary.

Appeals

Where any party to the investigation is not satisfied with the decision, a letter requesting a review of the decision will be sent to the Assistant Vice President, Labour Resources within fourteen (14) calendar days of receipt of the decision.

The Assistant Vice President, Labour Relations and the President of the Local will jointly review the decision. Where Unifor is not satisfied with the decision, the complaint will be referred to expedited arbitration with a single arbitrator. Agreement on the selection of the arbitrator and the dates of his/her availability to rule on this matter will not be unreasonably delayed or withheld by either party.

In cases of Human Rights harassment where the complainant is not satisfied with the final outcome of the process s/he has the right to seek redress under the Canadian Human Rights Act.

Where changes in the workplace are made necessary by demonstrated harassment, the harasser shall be subject to changes such as transfer or reassignment, except where the complainant is transferred at his/her request.

19.09.03 Domestic Violence - The Company agrees to recognize that employees sometimes face situations of violence or abuse in their personal life that may affect their attendance or performance at work. For that reason, the Company and the Union agree, when there is adequate verification from a recognized professional (i.e. doctor, lawyer, registered counsellor), an employee who is in an abusive or violent situation will not be subjected to discipline if the absence can be linked to the abusive or violent situation. Absences which are not covered by sick leave or disability insurance will be granted as absent with permission without pay.

19.10 Trades Apprenticeship Training - Trades Apprentices will be granted time off without pay as necessary in order to attend Government approved courses which will result in the issuance of a license for the type of work to be performed.

- 19.11.05 The Employer will provide access to a private office in order for the Advocate to meet with employees confidentially.
- 19.11.06 The Employer will provide the Advocate with a management support person to assist them in their role.
- 19.11.07 The Employer and the Union will develop appropriate communications to inform all Black, Indigenous and racialized union members of the role of the Racial Justice Advocate and information on how to contact them.
- 19.11.08 The Advocate will participate in an initial training session and regular annual updated training to be delivered by the Union. Training expenses will be at the local union's cost.
- 19.11.09 The Employer agrees to pay for lost time for the advocates to fulfil their duties during their assigned work schedule.
- 19.12 Women's Advocate: The parties recognize that employees sometimes wish to discuss matters relating to domestic violence or harassment in the workplace with another woman. They may also want to learn more about specialized resources available in the community such as shelters.
- 19.12.01 The Women's Advocates are appointed by the union from among the women members of the bargaining unit.
- 19.12.02 A Women's Advocate is a workplace representative who will meet with members, discusses their problems and directs them to the appropriate resources when necessary.
- 19.12.03 Should the Women's Advocate require time off the job in order to fulfil their duties, the union, if in agreement, will submit a leave of absence request for approval by the human resources department and such approval shall not be unreasonably withheld.

20.02 The amount to be deducted will not be changed except to conform with a change in the Union's Constitution.

Such refusal will have no effect on the employee's right to be offered a recall in the future.
