Dear Mr. Baron,

Re: In the Matter of Collective Bargaining between ASP Incorporated and the National Automobile Aerospace, Transportation and General Workers Union (CAW/TCA Canada) and it's Local 2002 - a request pursuant to Section 71 of the Canada Labour Code

---

Please consider this as notice under provision of Part 1, Section 71 of the Canada Labour Relations Code as a request for government assistance in the collective bargaining process.

Notice to bargain was given pursuant to Section 36(2) of the Canada Labour Code on January 31st, 2011 (copy attached).

The Union and the Company have reached an impasse in the bargaining process and therefore request that you appoint a conciliation officer to ensure that the bargaining process is handled in a suitable fashion.

Attached is a copy of our notice to bargain. The present collective agreement will be sent via email and regular mail.

Sincerely,

JOEL FOURNIER
National Representative
CAW-Canada
